Description

A charming late 19th century pine kitchen dresser. The upper section has moulded cornice above the open rack back. This rests on a base comprised of two drawers over two cupboard doors. The drawers each have lovely brass cup handles. The brass handled doors open to reveal a neat interior with a single fitted shelf. Raised on a plinth base. Separates into two for ease of transport. Item Ref; M-2284 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 218.5cm / Width - 123cm / Depth - 47cm / Surface Height - 107.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including minor losses to back of upper section. Evidence of old historical treated woodworm. Losses to rear of left side and bottom of right-hand side. Of good construction with the drawers running well. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
