Description

A distinctive Art Nouveau photograph frame, the scrolling brass wirework supports well formed brass flowers. The inner frame has a foliate design and a fine beaded border. Whilst appearing delicate, this antique frame is very robust. The condition is very good, the frame retains its original glass and has an easel support which can be set in either portrait or landscape position. This decorative brass frame is typical of the Art Nouveau period and is ready to display a favourite image or would be a perfect gift. c. 1890 Height: 9.5" 24 cm Width 7" 18 cm
