Description

An attractive early 20th century oak dresser. The boarded rack back top has fret cut detail and two fitted shelves, with the upper shelf having a small blind panel cupboard door to the middle. The base consists of two drawers and two blind panel cupboard doors. Each has decorative brass handles and backplates, with one having a maker's mark to the back. The blind cupboard doors are opened with the brass pull to one door, revealing a neat interior with a single shelf. Raised on shaped plank sides, with the front apron having fret cut heart detail. Item Ref; M-2245 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 196cm / Width – 138cm / Depth – 51cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including minor historic treated woodworm to the back. There are also age-related marks, wear and staining to the top. Drawers run well. Of good construction. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
