Description

These so called 'Nim' Suzani are always very popular because the small size is so easy to use at home and, of course, they are packed full of beautiful silk embroidery. Very easy on the eye and a big favourite with notable Interior Decorators. This lovely example is in fabulous condition, obviously cherished as it has some small curtain hooks still on one side, indicating it has been hanging. The various shining silk threads and myriad flowers resemble a small garden. Ready to go straight on your wall.
