Description

This is a very large late 19th century salt glazed garden pot. The heavy decoration is fabulous with clear lines and crisp appearance. The colour is wonderful also. It is ideal for use outside but could work just as well in the corner of a room. There overall condition is very good with the only issue being a small chip out of the base which when turned to the back cant be seen. Height 63cm Diameter 40cm Price includes UK mainland delivery
