Description

This is a pair of antique andirons. A French, cast iron fireside fire dog or tool rests in Art Nouveau taste, dating to the late 19th century, circa 1900. Superb and expressive forms in the Art Nouveau manner. Displaying a desirably aged patina and in good order. Cast iron displays a good, consistent graphite finish. Sinuous in form with spade motif supported by distinctive fish-tail stands. Elegant stanchion leg to rear with scrolled toe. This is a delightful pair of antique andirons, set to add typically Art Nouveau elegance to the fireside. Delivered polished ready to frame the fireplace.
