Description

A set of four Antique George V Sterling silver candlesticks which have plain square shaped loaded bases, tall plain columns also with some attractive detailing and simple detachable nozzles. This fine set of four silver candlesticks have been well cared for over the years and would look impressive when displayed on the dining table. Two of the candlesticks are dated for 1912 and two are dated for 1913 but were all made by Fordham and Faulkner. There is a discreet crest of a "Doe" just above the base of each candlestick which is part of the history of these lovely candlesticks. They stand at 30.00 cms tall. They were hallmarked in Sheffield for 1912/13 by Fordham and Faulkner and remain in excellent condition. Complimentary postage is offered within the price of these silver candlesticks.
