Description

A good quality early 20th century oak sideboard. It has an arrangement of three drawers, flanked by blind single panel cupboards doors. One door opens to reveal a single fitted shelf, whereas the other opens to reveal two pigeonholes and two felt lined drawers. Each has brass pulls. The three drawers each have decorative brass ring pull handles. The sides are attractively panelled. Raised on cabriole legs. Item Ref; M-2283 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 107cm / Width – 167.5cm / Depth – 54cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including shrinkage gaps to the top. Shrinkage gaps to right hand leg and cornice. Evidence of old historic treated woodworm. Of good construction. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
