Description

An attractive early 20th century oak roll top desk. The S-shaped rolltop opens to reveal an arrangement of several pigeonholes and small wooden knobbed drawers. The base consists of an arrangement of eight drawers around the central knee-hole, with the ones to either side having long wooden cup handles. Above the drawers are two pull-out writing surfaces. Complete with working lock and key. Also, the drawers automatically lock when the roll top is down. To the lock surround reads a maker's mark for 'Angus, London'. Raised on castors. Item Ref; M-1140 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 113.5cm / Width – 107cm / Depth – 66cm / Surface Height – 77.5cm / Knee Height - 65cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including some marks, wear, and minor losses to the writing surfaces. There is a shrinkage gap to the lower right-hand side (pictured). Roll top is in good condition. Of good construction with the drawers running well. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the phot...
