Description

This superb chest of drawers has benefitted from a re French polishing and is now in really great condition. Displaying the original cabinet furniture and all the inlays it will not disappoint. The drawers, which have a key as can be seen in one of the pictures, are all lined in oak with dove tail joints and the whole chest sits on splay bracket feet. The drawers are clean and a good depth to take your belongings. It is a great size and a very neat looking example dating from the early 1900s, about a century old but could be 5 years old by its condition. Dont hesitate to call to discuss 01565 874075. We have two other inlaid chests in stock, also in great condition, check out our web site for more information.
