Description

A solid silver cased Movado Ermeto purse watch or travel clock c1930 ~ ~ Original condition throughout ~ ~ This is an original Movado Ermeto purse watch or travel clock dated to around 1930. By one of the top Swiss makers of this era Movado Ermeto who were renowned for the quality of their movements and for their style and design. It is in original condition, bright and clean yet showing the patina which you would expect from an item of this age. As you would expect the manual movement is fully marked as is the dial. It has a solid silver case which is hallmarked although as you can see the hall marks are rubbed and difficult to read so I cannot date this watch accurately. The solid silver case is in lovely condition and the two halves snap together crisply to close it. The automatic winding mechanism is working perfectly and winds the watch when you open and close it. The movement is in excellent clean and running condition having just undergone a complete and comprehensive overhaul by Alan Williams of Plymouth Clocks. Alan Williams is a fellow of the British Horological Institute the highest qualification for clock makers in the UK so you can be assured that th...
