Description

An unusual slim Edwardian oak display stand or open bookcase/newspaper stand dating from circa 1905. With a shaped back featuring three open display shelves ideal for leaflets, books or newspapers. The base has two open bookshelves and is raised on arched feet. In a wonderfully warm coloured oak with good patina. Of small proportions; so would work wonderfully in a hall or a where space is limited. This piece came from a church where it was used to display leaflets (the photo shows it displaying A4 sheets) but would work equally well in a hotel lobby for newspapers or as a shop display or simply as an open bookcase. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Good original condition with good colour and patina. General wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Height: 116cm Width: 58cm Depth at Bottom: 23cm Bottom Shelves 26cm High x 54cm Wide x 19cm Deep
