Description

A well-proportioned 18th century antique oak coffer with decorative carved detail and unusual inlay. The three panel hinged lid opens to reveal a generous storage space. The coffer has a three panel front with decorative diamond shaped carvings to each panel and decorative inlaid detail between the panels. Raised on simple stile feet. Item Ref; M-2348 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 53.5cm / Width – 116cm / Depth – 53cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age and wear. There is surface wear in places including some age-related marks to the top surface and to the front (pictured). Some shrinkage to the panels. Hinges appear original. Honest metal brace repair to the bottom/base. It appears there would have been a candle box to the interior – this has been removed at some point in time. Structurally solid and sound. Of neat proportions. Overall, a particularly charming coffer. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
