Description

A heavily carved 19th century oak cupboard on stand. The top section has a moulded cornice and reeded columns to either side. Two doors open to reveal an interior with two fitted shelves. The base also has two small fitted drawers each with iron ring handles, above an under-tier shelf. There are chunky, turned, and carved supports to the front, with carvings to the back panel. Raised on a plinth base with bun feet. Splits into two for ease of transport. Complete with working lock and key. Item Ref; M-2351 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 185cm / Width – 85cm / Depth – 36cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age and wear. There is surface wear in places, including some age-related marks to the front and also the under-tier base (pictured). Of good construction. Complete with working lock and key. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
