Description

This is an antique privacy screen. A French, needlepoint upholstered room divider, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Presenting a copiously detailed, fin de siècle screen. Displaying a desirable aged patina with signs of sun fade to reverse. Four panel screen dressed with quality needlepoint upholstery. Displaying a hunting scene, the riders on horseback stand alongside a woodland stream. Shaped top with half-dome forms an attractive accompaniment to the folded screen. Dressed edges finished with red and gold brocade trim borders, accentuated with press studs. This is an appealing antique privacy screen or room divider, with a superb hunting scene embroidered textile presenting fine detail. Delivered ready to display.
