Description

A very nice small old pine display cabinet, with a solid door cupboard below. Dating from the turn of the century, it is in very good condition for its age. With a glazed door, and glazed side panels, it makes a great piece to show (and keep safe) your treasured possessions. Would work well in any room in your home, kitchen, dining room, hall, landing, bathroom. We think it could have originally been used as a drinks cabinet. Both doors are hung on French style external hinges, allowing them to open fully. The original lock, key and escutcheons are all in good order. There is a decorative cornice top and is stood on attractive bracket feet. Recently stripped to the bare wood, it is now ready for waxing or painting. A charming piece of furniture, in solid clean condition. Height 68", Width 38", Depth 21"
