Description

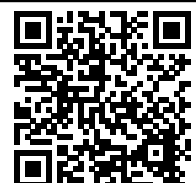

A unique Cauldon plate bearing the coat of arms of the Broomhead-Colton-Fox family and celebrating the victory of a horse named "The Deil" at Alexandra Park (12 Sep 1903) and Manchester (26 Sep 1903). The Broomhead-Colton-Fox family were in the newspapers at the turn of the century as Barnard Platts Broomhead Colton-Fox, a well known lawyer, was tragically killed when hit by a train at Sheffield Station in 1893, and his daughter, Marian, eloped with the world famous organist Edwin Lemaire. Condition: Some wear to the gilding at the base but otherwise excellent. Period: 1903 All of the items that we advertise for sale have been as accurately described as possible and are in excellent condition, unless otherwise stated. Please note that we are also able to arrange a full shipping service for our customers. We offer a 14 day returns policy. In the unlikely event that you are not completely satisfied with your purchase we will issue a full refund of the purchase price less the return transport costs with an approved courier once an item is received by us in the same condition as it was originally dispatched. We look forward to being of service.
