Description

This is an antique set of bookshelves. An English, walnut open bookcase with adjustable shelves, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. Attractive bookshelf with fascinating Doric overtones. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select walnut presents fine grain interest. Rich caramel hues beam beneath a quality wax polish finish. Tiered crown moulding sits prominently above the whole. Arranged as a suit of three generous shelves with height adjustment by toothed brackets. Ebonised diamond carvings to each side sit above fluted column motif. Standing upon a continuous plinth base with tiered edge. This is a fascinating antique set of bookshelves, with generously sized shelves for your prized collection of books. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
