Description

An exceptionally good, large early 20th century antique oak refectory table or dining table. The four plank oak top has cleated ends and is raised on four thick square and turned legs with a fantastic central 'H' stretcher support. The oak table has an attractive rich colour and patina throughout. The top lifts off for ease of transport and movement. Item Ref; M-2414 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 76cm / Width – 228cm / Depth – 88cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including some minor age-related marks to the top (pictured), but overall, the table is in very good condition. Structurally solid and sound with good tight joints. Attractive colour and patina throughout. Overall, one of the best examples of an antique oak refectory table we've seen in recent times. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home!
