Description

A lovely early 20th century antique oak chest of drawers. Made by Afflecks of Ayr, it has a moulded cornice to the top and an arrangement of two short over five long drawers. Each of the drawers has turned wooden knobs. There is decorative beading around each of the drawers. The chest is raised on four small bun feet. The sides and back are panelled. There is a maker's mark/badge to the top of the back. Item Ref; M-2464 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 144cm / Width - 98cm / Depth - 52.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places, including some age-related marks and scratches to the top (pictured), and some mild scratches to the drawer fronts. The chest is of good construction. Good colour and patina throughout. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
