Description

These are a great looking set of 8 gothic dining chairs. They are English, they date to the early 20th century and are made from elm. Great colour and patina to all of the chairs, Simple design but well made and in great condition. A good weight as well so very sturdy. I love the fact that although they have a Gothic design they aren't so ornate that they wouldn't work in a contemporary home. I think the fact they are relatively simple looking means they will fit well in a number of settings. Height 86cm Width 44cm Depth 45cm Depth of seat 33cm Height of seat 45cm
