Description

Victorian inlaid walnut credenza Here we are pleased to offer you this exhibition quality Victorian inlaid walnut credenza. This Victorian inlaid walnut credenza was made to a quality, price was not the issue, it was all about quality of materials and finish. It is exceedingly difficult to find items at this high level as only the very wealthy could have afforded this cabinet when it was first made. The cabinetmaker selected the best grade burr walnut to start this stunning cabinet. The credenza has a bow glass door to each end enclosing display shelves. The central panel door with fine inlay design and cast gilt bronze mouldings to the edge, to each side of the door are gilt bronze mounted columns. The plinth also has cast gilt bronze mouldings and the turned feet under also have the gilt bronze. This is your opportunity to own a prestige Victorian inlaid walnut credenza that would have graced an important home when it was made circa 1865. Imagine the pleasure of ownership this will bring. 168cms wide 66ins 46cms deep 18ins 114cms high 45ins Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
