Description

This is an antique love seat. An English, pine two-seat bench or pew with ecclesiastic taste, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1900. Relax upon this wonderfully intimate bench for two. Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout, Victorian pine shows fine grain interest with traditionally pegged stocks. Warm caramel hues beam beneath a wax polish finish. Serpentine carved stiles present a dashing profile with winged form. Comfortable, dished seat of generous width at 78.5cm (31"). Lower rests useful as a shoe rack - ideal for the entrance hall. This is an attractive antique love seat, with fine colour and superb form. Of comfortable proportion and perfect for the hall or conservatory. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
