Description

An antique 18th century joined oak dresser. The top section has a moulded cornice, three fitted shelves supported by the shaped sides, and a boarded back in a painted finish. The base has five small spice drawers. Under which are three fitted drawers, each with brass handles, above three arched pediments. The pot board base is raised on square, stile feet. Item Ref; M-2465 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 212cm / Width - 159cm / Depth - 51.5cm / Surface Height - 70.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places, including age-related marks and staining to the surface top and front (pictured). Of good construction. There are some losses to the edge of the surface top. Evidence of old historic wood worm - this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Separates into two parts for ease of transport. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
