Description

An early 20th century oak dresser by 'Wolfe & Hollander of Tottenham Court Road, London'. The top section has a shaped apron with a central cupboard. The central cupboard has a small leaded stained-glass door, complete with a working lock and key. There are two fitted shelves to the top. The base has a blind panel cupboard door to the left hand side which opens to reveal a spacious interior. There are two fitted drawers to the right-hand side, each with Arts and Crafts design handles. Raised on decorative shaped front legs. Maker's badge to the inside of one of the drawers. The dresser separates into two. Item Ref; M-2469 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 186cm / Width - 138cm / Depth - 49cm / Surface Height - 92cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks to the top surface (pictured). The glazed cupboard door remains intact with no apparent breaks or cracks to the stained-glass. Of good construction with the drawers running smoothly.
