Description

A large antique Victorian overmantle mirror later painted in an ebonised black painted finish dating from circa 1880. It has a moulded d-shaped frame with plinth base. It retains its original mirror plate which is nicely aged, with foxing and loss of silvering; with most loss to the edges. With original backing boards. Construction/Wood: Painted wood/Gesso Condition Report: Wear and marks commensurate with age. The frame has been hand painted in Annie Sloan Athenian Black chalk paint and given a wax finish. Mirror plate is original with some general age related wear, some foxing and loss of silvering in places, mainly to the edges. With original backing boards. Dimensions: Height: 107cm Max Width at Bottom: 161cm Width in Middle: 137cm Max Depth: 5cm
