Description

A neat early 20th century antique oak dresser. The top has a moulded cornice and two fitted shelves with shaped sides. The dresser base has an arrangement of two long drawers above three smaller drawers, each with brass swan neck handles. Raised on four square and turned legs with a straight 'H' stretcher support. Separates into three parts for ease of transport and movement; the rack top, the central drawer section, and the four leg base. Item Ref; M-2472 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 192.5cm / Width – 109cm / Depth – 42cm / Surface Height - 81cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places, including some minor age-related marks to the top (pictured). Of good construction with the drawers running well. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
