Description

A first-class example of these beautiful and popular wallclocks by World renowned maker GUSTAV BECKER dating from around 1890. Walnut case in stunning condition with quarter-veneered back panel, shaped pediment with eagle emblem, and part reeded, half turned pillars to the glazed door. The enamelled dial is free from any chips, cracks or crazing and has black Roman numerals and subsidiary seconds dial. The brass pendulum and weights are in first-class order. The 8 day movement has just been fully serviced and overhauled by a fully registered B.H.I. member. It ticks nicely, strikes crisply, and keeps perfect time. The movement is clearly stamped with the Gustav Becker factory emblem. It strikes on the half-hour and hour.
