Description

Georgian oak pot board dresser base This Georgian oak pot board dresser base was made circa 1800. It is fitted 3 drawers with Georgian brass fretted plate handles. To the front you have the 3 turned supports and the usual straight legs to the rear. Joining the legs is the rare feature of a panelled pot board, usually they are just long planks, but this has the more refined double panel. This Georgian oak pot board dresser base would have been made for an Estate cottage using timber taken from the estate. Country made dressers are full of character and this example has a lovely wax finish and good colour. These dresser bases are so attractive in many places around your home and ownership will bring you much pleasure and is bound to be much admired by your family and friends. 187cms wide 73 1/2ins 43cms deep 17ins 78.5cms high 31ins Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
