Description

A beautiful pair of cased Georgian solid sterling silver serving spoons. They are hallmarked for London 1792 with the makers marks being RE for Richard Evans. They have been beautifully made having superbly designed embossed bowls and the terminals have been engraved with a crest of possibly the Hussey or Ewart family. They are in superb condition being free from dings splits and repairs. A few marks to the inner lid silk. They measure approx. 8.75 inches (22.3cms) long by 1.75 inches (4.6cms) wide and have a combined weight of 118 grams (excluding the case). Beautifully made examples.
