Description

A lovely mahogany chest of drawers dating from the early 19th Century. They have nice small proportions with a flat front and they stand on bracket feet. It offers plenty of storage with two short over three long drawers and each drawer has brass pull handles. It is in very good condition for its age. The drawers open well, having recently had the runners restored and are generally clean and tidy inside. The bottom two handles are slightly different to the rest but it isn't immediately obvious. There are the usual signs of wear and use, some minor old marks and knocks but nothing untoward and it displays well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
