Description

A beautiful Norwegian solid sterling silver and enamel dish. It is hallmarked 925S with the makers marks being those of David Andersen. I would date it to c1960's, the manufacturing code on the base ends in 64 which I suspect is the year. It has been beautifully designed with the bowl being enamelled in blue. It is in superb condition being free from dings splits distortions and repairs, the enamel free from chips cracks and repairs. It measures approx. 2.5 inches (6.4cms) across by over 0.5 inch (2.1cms) tall and weighs 26 grams. A very high quality piece.
