Description

A very rare antique strong box in a stunning working fully restored condition. We bring to you this very rare fully restored George Price patent strong box safe. This fantastic quality and very secure safe is truly a museum piece and has had no expense spared in its restoration. The George Price safe company were established in 1840, we estimate that this safe is from around 1860. The George price safes are much rarer than Milners or Chatwood which were their direct competitor and seemingly rivals. There are multiple write ups for the George Price full history available with a quick google if you are interested in finding out more about them. This safe features 3/16" steel plate construction to all sides with the top being 5/16" solid steel door. The frame of the safe is also reinforced with angle iron as shown inside which is all original. This safe also features 2 individually keyed lever box locks meaning to open the safe you need both keys. This strong box has 2 heavy duty handles either side and 1 to open the heavy door. The sizes and weight are listed below. This lovely safe features original specification 2 tone paintwork to authentic original George Price...
