Description

Set of 4+1 Antique 1920's Queen Anne Style Mahogany Dining Chairs. A lovely set of mahogany chairs. This is an excellent condition set of 5 Mahogany dining chairs in very good condition believed to be made around the early 1900's to 1920. These chairs feature a lovely original rich mahogany french polished finish with a lightly faded original colour which we have just enhanced by sympathetically restoring and carefully waxing these chairs to a lovely natural sheen. This set of chairs has been looked after and cared for as it is quite rare to find a set of chairs in such good condition. The other chair is slightly earlier and not quite the same but is very similar in design which makes this a great extra or header chair. This set of chairs are of a very high quality and are made from all solid Mahogany with a very solid construction and no loose joints or wobbles as found with many antique chairs. The drop in seat pads are in good condition and are upholstered in a faux black leather so the chairs are comfortable and ready for a new home. Please note; As these are antique chairs they do come with signs of age and use and they do have some signs of old repair...
