Description

Early Georgian Oak Lowboy An amazing example of a very rare Lowboy table. We bring to you this excellent rare example of an original early Georgian George III (circa 1760-1801) solid Oak country Lowboy. The table features a 2 plank top with Mahogany Cross-banded Inlays above a single drawer which is also framed with Mahogany cross-banded inlays. The draw is complete with dovetailed construction and solid polished brass swan neck handles with escutcheon plates. This Lowboy features pegged joint construction, the pegs are visible from the underside showing its elegantly primitive construction. The Lowboy stands on Queen Anne hoof legs. This Lowboy has a lovely lightly faded original oak colour with lots of patina and its original waxed finish. The table has at some stage of its long life suffered from woodworm which has been treated and is no longer active. The table has also had small repairs done in the past as expected with anything from this period. We have sympathetically restored this item maintaining original patina by carefully waxing it to preserve the finish and give it a lovely natural sheen. Please note; This item is in fantastic condition for i...
