Description

A Carved Solid Oak Wind-out Dining Table. A fantastic extending 4-6 seater table. We bring to you one of the finest examples of an Edwardian solid oak wind out table believed to be made between 1880 - 1900. This almost flawless table has been fully restored and re-polished and is in fantastic condition with a lovely polished finish with a lightly faded original medium oak colour. The tops feature ornately hand carved edges with beautiful quarter cut silver grain and lots of character. The impressive yet simple solid oak tabletops sits on its wind-out frame (which works smoothly without sagging, keeping the top perfectly flat) that descends to 4 substantial finely turned and ornately carved legs finishing to its 4 original brown porcelain castors, making it very easy to move. This table is complete with the winding handle and has 1 additional leaf giving this table a small overall form when the leaf is not in use or quite a large table when the leaf is in. This table can manage to accommodate 4-6 chairs and be used as a formal dining room or even a breakfast table. This item is in great condition for its age as shown by the photographs however being an antique item of ...
