Description

Very large 18th century Chinese bronze bowl, c1790. This is a truly impressive example albeit with a few condition issues. It is a great size and weight (11kg) and is beautifully decorated with 6 panels depicting immortals. There is a lovely stylised Elephant mask handle but unfortunately the other is missing. The base is also missing and there are various marks, scuffs etc. However it would still display well as is but would obviously benefit from a thoughtful restoration. Please refer to the detailed photographs and feel free to contact me if you would like to view the item or have any questions. Price includes FREE UK delivery. Size: 31cm tall x 38cm diameter at widest point, weight 11kg.
