Description

Superb Welsh oak coffin with a massive lid enclosing a panelled chest made from heavy oak planks. The front has four gothic-shaped raised and fielded panels above a pair of drawers, decorated with inlay patterns of a distinctive style associated with west Wales. The panels feature flowing plant forms emanating from vases and Celtic pinwheels, the drawers having a chequered line terminating in lozenges. Towy Valley, Carmarthenshire, west Wales, circa 1770 (The handles, pin-hinges and parts of the drawer linings have been replaced, and the stile feet have been cut flush with the bottom rail) For similar examples, see "Welsh Furniture 1250-1950; A Cultural History of Craftsmanship and Design" (Saer 2007), Vol 11 plates 746, 769, 770, 783. Height: 33 inches; 84 cms. (22.5 inches; 57 cms high internal) Width: 58.25 inches; 148 cms (53 inches; 135 cms wide internal) Depth: 22.5 inches; 57 cms
