Description

This fabulous necklace has phenomenal sparkle and is the epitome of chic antique glamour which remains absolutely wearable today despite being more than a hundred years old. The old-cut paste stones are set rivière-style (hanging from the top edges) and foiled at the back, giving them incredible light-reflecting properties. See photos both in artificial indoor light and low-level outdoor daylight. In very good antique condition, with overall wear to the surface plating of the metal surfaces. No chips to the stones. The clasp opens smoothly and snaps shut securely. Length: 17 inches. Size: The pastes measure 7mm, with one slightly larger stone set at the very centre of the length. Weight: 24.5g.
