Description

19thc. walnut bureau bookcase This 19thc. walnut bureau bookcase was made in the late 19th century to order. It was not a mass-produced item and would have been commissioned to this specification. Formerly it was treasured by the family who for generations owned Great Brampton House (when it was a family home, before being sold for later commercial uses) This 19thc. walnut bureau bookcase is of the most delightful size, and wonderful on the eye. The bureau bookcase is made in 2 sections, which allows easy transportation to and around your home. The glazed top section with a single door that encloses shelves and a pair of drawers. The base section fitted the sloping front that opens to reveal the baize writing surface and the stepped interior with pigeonholes and drawers. Imagine the pleasure ownership of this most charming bureau bookcase will give you. It is bound to cause much conversation and admiration as it enhances your home. 67cms wide 27ins 54cms deep 21 1/4ins 172cms high 67 3/4ins Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
