Description

This is a large antique textiles table. An English, pine shop retail display table, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Graced with useful proportion and antique trade appeal Displays a desirably aged patina and in good order Stout Victorian pine displays appealing weathered interest Presented with a quality natural wax finish and mellow caramel hues Of great proportion for retail or institutional display purposes, or as a feature piece in a large home Canted and chamfered corners to the 4cm (1.5") thick plank top Distinctive shaped aprons run along the length of the table with open ends Standing upon four square section legs of stout form and united by stretcher rails This is a fascinating large antique textiles table, with pleasing natural finish and dependable Victorian craftsmanship. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for use.
