Description

This is an antique stilton dome. An English, ceramic cheese keeper and cracker plate, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Offers superb proportion for keeping your favourite cheeses. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Off-white ceramic presented with a quality glaze. Earlier cracker plate sits neatly beneath the keeper. Small finial adorns the top of the keeper dome. Foliate patterns decorate the dome and repeating around the rim of the base. Distinctive maker's mark to keeper plate for Edge, Malkin & Co, Stoke on Trent. Cracker plate stamped for Grove & Stark (1871-1884). This is a charming antique stilton dome and cracker plate, ideal for a cheese and biscuit party or keeping your cheeses covered. Delivered polished and ready to serve.
