Description

A unusual small antique oak French desk or work table dating from circa 1910. It features a single drawer alongside a rest that slides out. In solid oak it stands on serpentine legs decorated with egg and dart moulding. The legs are hinged and once all the screws are removed it folds away for storage/transport. Good warm colour to the beautifully figured oak, the drawer locks and comes with a key. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Solid and sturdy. General wear and marks commensurate with age. There is an old split/gap in the oak to the corner below the top – which is solid. Some chips to the arch supports at the back. Dimensions: Width: 81cm Height: 65cm height to Underneath: 58cm Depth: 45cm
