Description

Dating from the 1820's, this clock is in excellent condition with its original restored 8 inch convex dial and steel hands housed in a gorgeous mahogany case with satinwood inlay. The lion mask ring handles are original as are the brass bun feet and the case sides are complimented by brass fish-scale fretwork with material backing. The four pillar movement has just been serviced and strikes the full hour and the half on a lovely-sounding bell and comes with a two year guarantee. The rear door glass is being cut and replaced this week. Standing 44 cm tall this is not only a gorgeous clock but a lovely piece of furniture too. Delivery is available, please enquire for details.
