Description

Royal House Antiques is delighted to offer for sale this important, restored circa 1750 marble topped kingwood inlaid sideboard with polished silver fittings sideboard fully stamped for Germain Landrin 1710-1785. Please note the delivery fee listed is just a guide, it covers within the M25 only for the UK and local Europe only for international, if you would like an accurate quote please send me your postcode and I'll provide you with the exact price. This is a museum quality find, exceptionally rare and highly decorative, the marble top has a finish the likes of which I've never seen, it almost looks like flint it's so patinated. The silvered fixtures and fittings are all nicely polished and patinated, they are most likely pewter. The main body is made up of Kingwood, Walnut, Tulip wood and other tropical hardwoods. The piece has quite a strange function, its exactly the same both sides, the main body has two huge drawers which can be accessed from either side, there is a metal in the middle which seats the drawers' dead centre. The sides have two cupboards which would have had oak shelves, they were lost years ago, I can have two new shelves made free of charge. This...
