Description

A pair of small gilded brass girandoles with registration marks on both dating them to around 1884. They measure 31cm in length, 16cm at the widest part and the candle holder measures 18.5cm in depth, and there is a bar at the back for easy fixing to a wall. The original bevelled mirrors and the frames are in very good condition with no signs of damage. Cherub or angel faces with wings feature at the top and there is a rope effect around the mirrors. The designs at the top and base with the detailed scrolls shows quality casting. The girandoles have been lightly polished and are not as dark as may appear in the images. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price and for remote areas or abroad please contact us for a delivery quote.
