Description

Antique Single Chain Fusee Empire Mantel Clock With Cuban Mahogany Case Fatton. This superb and historically significant antique mantel clock has an empire style case made of a beautiful, rich, cuban mahogany. The case has a stepped top leading to a lovely patterned section dividing the top and the square body with stunning Tuscan pilasters to each corner. The base is then stepped out again to make it level with the top. The case has fabulous grand proportions which show the clocks high level of quality and craftsmanship. The dial is then enamel and set out in black roman numerals with a thin ring to the outside marking the minutes with small triangles, and diamonds at each five minute interval. The dial then has a fabulous, intricately patterned surround as well as a domed glass set into a patterned brass bezel / door. The centre of the dial is then signed very finely by the maker "FATTON ELEVE DE BREGUET LONDON NO 35" showing that the piece was No 35 made by Frederick Fatton. Finally the dial has two wonderful shaped, blued steel hands. The movement is then both wound, and accessed from the back and comes complete with its pendulum and winding key. The clock is t...
