Description

Beatuful Antique Walnut Lenzkirch Mantel Clock Quarter Strinking Ting Tang. This beautiful antique Lenzkirch mantel clock has a walnut case with a fantastic grand style. The top is shaped with a brass carry handle leading to scrolling sections with brass finals on each corner as well as in between the front and sides. There are then two square, reeded columns to each side, as well as the front each having brass capitols to the tops and bottoms. The sides then have shaped, floral brass panels backed with silk as well as the back door having wooden fretwork also backed in silk. Finally the bottom is shaped, leading into four shaped feet with shaped sections in between. The dial is then brass and has a silvered chapter ring set out in black Roman numerals with smaller Arabic numerals marking the minutes. The dial then has a "pitted" effect to the centre as well as a large brass spandril to the top, and smaller ones to the bottom corners. The dial then has a small silvered "fast & slow" arch for regulation with a small finger. Finally the dial is finished with a lovely shaped pair of finger, and a bevelled glass set into the door. The movement is then ticking away and chi...
