Description

This Serpentine Shaped Mahogany Writing Table offers a practical writing area whilst occupying a relatively small footprint. Standing on extremely elegant cabriole legs that are embellished with some exceptionally fine acanthus leaf carving to the knees along with well-defined ball and claw feet. The generous curvature to the piece is enhanced by the tooled deep red distressed hide top. The table is finished all round so could be placed anywhere in a room and be admired from any angle. There is a generous amount of knee room meaning this table is very comfortable to sit at. Circa 19thC Dimensions Width 36in/91cm Depth 18in/46cm Height 28½in/72cm Knee Room Height 24in/61cm
