Description

For your consideration is this very striking and imposing Art Deco double wardrobe with a modernist slant. The veneers are wonderful offering light and dark tones. Book paged walnut veneered doors with Macassar banding to the edges and plinth. This stand alone wardrobe would fit perfectly in any modern or period interior, from every angle this is an imposing piece of furniture. Inside offers full length hanging space and with internal added shelf to the right side ensures there is storage for all needs including folded items. There is also a full length mirror on the inside of right hand door. Still retains it's original brass hanging rail and hooks, original catches and handles. This wardrobe disassembles into three parts for ease of relocation, perfect for those narrow stair cases and sharp turns on landings. Left side Internal h 170 cm w 67cm d 47 cm Right side Internal h 148 cm w 50cm d 47 cm Shelf h 20.5 cm w 50cm d 45 cm We've had the whole piece taken through our workshops which has been professionally restored, everything works as it should, this wardrobe definitely won't disappoint.
